By the Lords Juſtices General and General Governours of Ireland,

A PROCLAMATION.

Hu. Armach, Tho. Wyndham C. Ralph Gore.

WHereas we have received his Majeſty's Royal Pleaſure, that the Parliament of this Kingdom which now ſtands prorogued to Thurſday the Fourteen Day of this Inſtant May, ſhould be further prorogued to Tueſday the Twenty Second Day of December next; we do therefore hereby publiſh and declare, That the ſaid Parliament be, and accordingly the ſaid Parliament is hereby further prorogued to Tueſday the Twenty Second Day of December next: Whereof the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament, are to take Notice accordingly.

Given at His Majeſty's Caſtle of Dublin, the Twelfth Day of May 1730.

By their Excellencies Command,
Tho. Tickell.

God Save the KING.

Whitehall, May 23.

On Wedneſday laſt the Four Troops of Horſe Guards, viz. The firſt commanded by the Right Honourable Lord Henry Herbert, the Second by the Right Honourable Algernon Earl of Hertford, the Third by the Right Honourable George Earl of Cholmondeley, and the Fourth by the Right Honourable Richard Lord Viſcount Shannon; as alſo the Two Troops of Horſe-Grenadier Guards, viz. the Firſt commanded by the Honourable John Fane, Eſq; and the ſecond by the Honourable Henry Berkeley, Eſq; paſſed in Review before His Majeſty in Hyde Park, and made a very fine Appearance.

On Thurſday laſt their Majeſties, with His Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, the Duke, the Princeſs Royal, their Royal Highneſſes the Princeſſes Amelia, Caroline, Mary, and Louiſa, went from St. James's to reſide for ſome Time at Richmond.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to conſtitute and appoint Colonel Charles Cockburn to be Lieutenant-Governour of the Caſtle of Sterling, in the Room of Thomas Lindſey, Eſq; deceaſed.

Whitehall, May 23.

The Commiſſaries appointed by His Majeſty to treat with thoſe of Spain for deciding the Claims of the Subjects of the Two Crowns, intending to ſet out in Fifteen Days, and being informed that ſeveral Merchants are doubtful in what Manner their Loſſes ought to be proved, they think proper to give Notice, that it is the Opinion of Perſons ſkill'd in the Civil Law, that all Claims ſhould be made out in the Court of Admiralty, according to the General Practice of other Nations in like Caſes: And an humble Repreſentation having been made to the King, His Majeſty hath been graciouſly pleaſed to take upon Himſelf the Payment of the Fees for authenticating ſuch Claims in the ſaid Court.

It will be neceſſary to have Spaniſh Tranſlations of all Proofs and Documents annex'd to the Engliſh.

East India Houſe, May 15, 1730.

The United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies do hereby give Notice, That all their Bonds now ſtanding out marked with the Letter A, will on the 31*ſt Day of December next be, with the Intereſt due thereon, paid at the Eaſt-India Houſe in Leadenhall-ſtreet, the Place limited for that Purpoſe in the Condition of thoſe Bonds; or if any of the Proprietors of any ſuch Bonds will in the mean Time bring them to the Company's Caſhire, the ſame will be immediately paid, with Intereſt thereon to the ſaid* 31*ſt Day of December; after which all Intereſt upon the ſaid Bonds will ceaſe.*

The Committee for Letting the Cities Lands in the Account of the Chamberlain of the City of London, give Notice, that they intend to Lett by Leaſe a Meſſuage or Tenement in St. Paul's Church-yard, in the Poſſeſſion of Mr. Peter Bartlett, known by the Sign of the Three Trunks; and that the ſaid Committee will ſit in the Council Chamber of the Guildhall, London, on Wedneſday the 27*th Day of May Inſtant, at Four of the Clock in the Afternoon, to receive Propoſals for the ſame; of which more particular Information may be had at the Comptroller's Office in the Guildhall aforeſaid.*
